

What we offer

Documentation developed and registered to assist in compliance with relevant laws, such as the AHA (Vic) Food Safety Program and AHA (Vic) Liquor Compliance Kit;

Assistance with liquor licensing issues, infringement notices, and providing local council advice;

Access to AHA(Vic) in-house advisor providing assistance (at no additional cost) on a comprehensive range of workplace relations, and employment matters;

Assistance with the interpretation and application of the Hospitality Industry (General) Award;

Assistance with music licensing;

Access to the 'members' area' of the AHA (Vic) website which includes all industry updates, news, and our Workplace Relations Hub- consisting of templates for contracts, position descriptions, policies and procedures, and other HR documents;

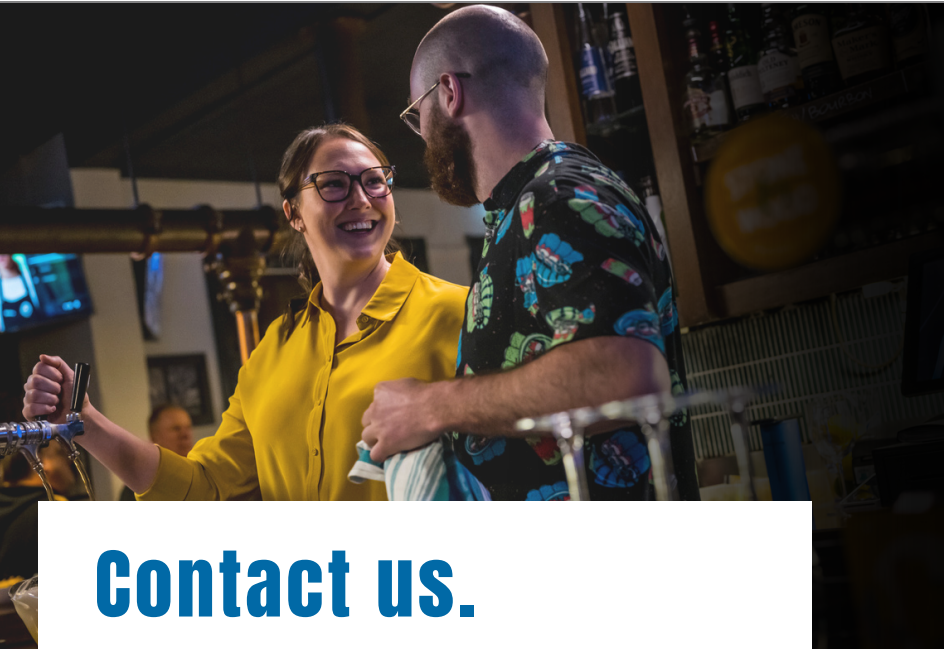

Opportunity to showcase your business by nominating in the Victorian State Awards for Excellence;

Attendance at local workshops, forums and tailored events throughout the year including the Pubs Pots and Profits, the Hospofuture Leaders Conference, Renovation Forum and Pubovation; and

Access to a range of discounts through our extensive network of industry suppliers

Contact us.

Are you looking for a membership that allows you to focus on hospitality, while we keep you up to date on your regulatory obligations?

Contact our helpful team members to assist in commencing your AHA (Vic) Membership.

For membership related enquiries

Kimberley Malcolm
General Manager- Member Experience and Compliance
k.malcolm@ahavic.com.au
0144 558 478

Troy Patterson
Membership Executive
t.patterson@ahavic.com.au
0417 325 716

To learn more about our list of industry suppliers

Dimity Harris
Partner Engagement Executive
d.harris@ahavic.com.au
0447 230 944

Advice. Support. Network. Influence

180 Years of Service

For a 180 years, AHA (Vic) has provided industry leadership, lobbied on members' behalf and promoted best practice in hotel management.